ENGINE TURNED OVER

Two Accidents on the Memphis Division Last Night.

St. Louis Train Delayed for Some Time—Other Railroad
Notes.

Engine No. 449, of the Fulton no commutation No. 181, in charge of Engineer Kelley, of the city, was struck last evening by a train on the main line at Fulton and turned over.
Fortunately no one was hurt. Details of the accident are not known, but the accommodation left the city late yesterday afternoon. Master Mechanic Charley sent a messenger down to disconnect the engine.

Two boarding cars were turned over at Paducah junction, below Fulton, last evening, and the wrecking train from the city was sent down last night to replace them. The particular causes of the accident were not reported here.

Superintendent W. J. Houston and Comptroller H. C. Wallace left this morning for Louisville, after spending two days here.

The brick work on the new hotel house began this morning, the stumps having been completed, and the structure will soon be ready for occupancy.

The St. Louis train, due at 7:30 this morning, was delayed over six hours by a wreck at Wadsworth, about twenty miles out of St. Louis. An engine in a freight train was derailed, which occasioned the delay.

Trainmaster J. J. Flynn and general yardmaster W. L. Smith went to Memphis this morning to attend court.

The pay train was due this morning at 11 o'clock but did not go through to the wrecks out of St. Louis. It was this afternoon reported 24 hours late, which will put it in tomorrow morning about noon.

to Jackson, Tenn.

HAD TWO STOMACHS.

HATFIELD CREEK, Mo., Oct. 19.—A peculiar case of surgery, in which a former boxer player figures, has been made public here. The patient Scot Stratton, of Taylorville, Ill., ex-pitcher of the Louisville club. His peculiarity is that he had two stomachs, and yet was starving. Stratton's trouble had increased to such an extent that food had to be forced into his stomach. An X-ray examination a few days ago revealed this cause, and the extra organ was removed. The patient will recover.

PROCLAMATION OF Viceroy Lang

Burdened with a sense of the honor done our great city by the proposed visit of our gracious sovereign, Emperor I., and knowing well the loyalty of our people, in pursuance of the proclamation of his royal majesty, I direct that all of the commands contained in said proclamation be patriotically carried out. I hereby direct the street commissioner to see that the streets are in gala attire and that the streets along the route to be followed by our royal master be decorated with flags, bunting and flowers. The prefect of police is instructed to allow all licenses referred to in the proclamation of his majesty.

I also direct that the firemen and police join in the parade and that the merchants and manufacturers of our city make such suitable display of their wares and products on boats and otherwise that his majesty may see that his servants have not been idle during his long and enforced absence. The captain of the guard is directed to assemble his men at the armory punctually at 3 p. m., October 26, and march thence to the landing and receive their royal master and escort them to the palace.

We call on all our royal citizens of Paducah to let nothing interfere with a proper observance of the two days, OCTOBER 26 and 27, that our king, at his home-coming, may see and appreciate the joy of his ever faithful subjects.

Witness my hand and seal this, 19th day of October, A. M., 5903.

J. M. LANG, Viceroy.

ANOTHER FLUKE

The Yacht Race Today Was a Failure Owing to the Lack of Wind.

COLUMBIA LED THE START

Against What Promised No Results Went Out on the Water.

WERE STILL AT LAST ACCOUNTS

HIGHLANDS, N. J., Oct. 19.—The weather conditions this morning could hardly have been more perfect for an other race between the yachts Shamrock and Columbia. A twelve knot breeze blew from the northwest and the boats soon disappeared. The skies were bright and only eager for them are the crews of both yachts were up with them. The Shamrock began resting a little lower in the water, due to a ton and a half ballast placed in her yesterday, did not show any mark of her unfortunate accident of Tuesday. The challenger had increased her water line more than a foot, and the Shamrock was now below the Columbia sixteen seconds. In the previous race the Columbia had to allow the Shamrock sixty and three-tenths seconds. The fleet of excursion boats and steam yachts that left the city this morning for the scene of the race was larger than it has been for some days. The general belief is that today's race would be the last of the series to be responsible for the increased interest in the contest. The preparatory regatta was fired at 10:45 and the boats will soon be off.

THE DOUBLE WEDDING.

Two Couples Married at Gilbert ville Yesterday.

A double wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. Thomas Gregory, of the Gilbertville section, yesterday afternoon.

Mr. W. L. Houston, aged 32, and Miss Mary Nall, aged 20, and Mr. J. W.
Houston, aged 24, and Miss Mollie Gregory, all of McEwen, Ky., were the contracting parties.

The grooms as well as the brides are young.

They arrived in the city yesterday afternoon on short bridal trip, and returned to their homes this afternoon.

THE POLICE COURT.

Only Three Cases on the Docket
This Morning.

There was a very short session of the police court this morning.

The two cases against Chas. White and Charlotte Fowler, for immorality and using insulting language, were settled yesterday afternoon, and the insulting language case dismissed.

The other, as was the charge for false swear, was not heard, for which no swear had been issued, were continued until Monday.

The case against Willie Cook, for using insulting language towards Stephen Cummings, was dismissed.

George Pool was fined $5 and costs for a breach of the peace.

Will Marable was fined $5 and costs for riding with a woman of bad reputation.

THE DELIGHTFUL OUTING.

A nice party enjoyed an outing on the yacht Rock Hill yesterday afternoon. It was complimentary to Miss Terry and Mr. Terry, daughter and son of Capt. Terry, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Cook Bushong, Mrs. Henry Burnett, Miss Martha Leed, Miss Mickey Hambro, Mrs. Bob Phillips, Maurice Nash, Mrs.
Trene Gardner, Bivin Fowler.

There was no later report than this and likely no race.

MARRIED TODAY.

Miss Battie Robinson and Mr.
Walter Clark Married.

The marriage of Miss Battie Robison to Mr. Walter Clark took place this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Jennie Hall, mother of the bride, on North Fifth street, Rev-

BRYAN GONE.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 19.—Mr. Bryan wound up his three-days' tour of Kentucky last night at Covington. Mr.
Bryan spoke yesterday at Shadyside, Hartwood, Lawrenceburg, Lagrange, Pittsburgh, and Sanders, besides his speeches at the Louisville Democratic bazaar and at Covington.
Today he left the state for Ohio, which he will tour in like manner.

MORE BRITISH TO THE FRONT

CAPE TOWN, Oct. 19.—A court martial was held yesterday. Kimberley says the British lost two killed in the fight at Mafeking last Saturday.

LAWNSMITH, Oct. 19.—Desultory fighting continued all night between the Boers and British outposts at Action Home.

CAPE TOWN, Oct. 19.—Definite news of the fighting at Mafeking is still wanting. Reports of the Boers reverses there, however, are persistent.

SOUTHAMPTON, Oct. 19.—Five transports leave here tomorrow for South Africa, conveying over five thousand officers and men, including Prince Alexander of Teck, who is a major in the British army.

CAPE TOWN, Oct. 19.—A Kimberley dispatch says Col. Here engaged the Boers around Mafeking Saturday with great success. Mafeking was safe Sunday. A second dispatch adds that an armored train which reconnoitered north Saturday engaged five hundred Boers, inflicting heavy losses. The British lost two killed and fourteen wounded.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—A Ladysmith special reports a small engagement with Boers at Tintwa Pass. An important British move, which correspondents are forbidden to send pending, is about to be made.

NOAH WARNED.

Franklin Told to Get Out of the County.

Noah Franklin, who was recently accused of a charge of murder in the Marshall county circuit court, has since remained in the neighborhood, despite the feeling that is against him in Marshall. He was charged with killing D. H. Sullivan, but the charge as is well known, was not sustained.

Last night a written warning was sent to him at his home near Elkins in Marshall county, to leave the country at once or take the consequences.

People from the Elkins section report that there is some bitter feeling against him, and unless he leaves as demanded trouble is likely to follow, as he also has many friends.

KICKED BY A HORSE.

Boy Meets With a Serious Mishap On Adams Street.

WILTHAM, the little son of Mr. John Boggs, of Adams street near Second, was kicked in the face by a horse this morning, and badly hurt.

His lower jaw was broken, several teeth were knocked out, and he received several painful cuts. He was able to go into the house, however, and inform the family that a horse had kicked him.
He was taken to Dr. Penley's office, where his injuries were dressed.

DISMANTLING THE OLYMPIA.

BOSTON, Oct. 19.—The Olympia, the famous ship, is being rapidly dismantled. Already her boats and life rafts have been removed, tackle of all kinds being taken off, and in two or three weeks she will be stripped.

The work, which is proceeding aboard according to orders from the navy department, must go on without interference.

Probably the public has had its chance to see the famous fighter as she came into port from her historic cruise. Her guns are to be taken off and everything stripped for putting her out of commission. She will be decked in about a month and laid up for thorough overhauling for over a year.

MET DEATH TOGETHER.

GREEN LAKE, Wis., Oct. 19.—Terrace House, a large hotel owned by W. A. Meyer, burned to the ground today. Mr. and Mrs. Jenks, parents of Mrs. Meyer, were burned to death.

The loss on the building and contents will reach $10,000, partially covered by insurance.

A pathetic incident in connection with the disaster was the burning to death of Mr. and Mr. Jenks. Mr. Jenks was lying very ill in bed and not expected to live. Mrs. Jenks made a haste attempt to save her husband, but before she could rescue him the blaze cut off all escape and the old couple burned to death.

THURSDAY, OCT. 19, 1890.

What will the president's message contain is now a question?

Gov. Bradley in his speech at Louisburg tonight will without doubt warm Goebl's jacket to a most uncomfortable extent.

The Cuban question and the Phillips war so far as the McKinley's next message is concerned have been discussed by his latest speeches.

It is useless to approach a sound money man with the Chicago plan.

He helped to smash it and has no use for the lingering nonsense.

The Goeblites had as well give up the race. They are not to it and all their bluster will go for naught. The next governor of the state is to be Mr. Taylor.

The Indiana case is not out of the canvas, as some of the Goeblites claim. The sting of the slander is still with the confederates who did not loose the honor of their cause with the cause.

The Goeblites are pleading the baby act. They are crying persecution of the Kenton king by the opposition. The cry is that of the whipped party and will excite no sympathy.

Congressman Bailey, of Texas, at the last minute, broke its Kentucky engagement. The gentleman nobly wisely concluded he had best not follow the traitor with "cold" by it and Goebl.

Governor Bradley will speak tonight in Louisville in behalf of the Republican ticket. There will be no doubt a rousing audience to hear what he shall say is certain to be of interest and to the point.

The United States would have remained the New England States if the country had never existed. The greatness of this grand nation was the result of expansion, and it must continue to spread its blessings.

Mr. Ryan in his trial through Kentucky left behind him more "phantom" than he did "good." The purpose of his visit, it is clear, was to do Ryan harm or a favor than Goebl, and the former created much disrepute even among the confederates.

Mr. Ryan would do well to devote his attention to Nebraska. That state next month is to vote on local option and is going to give the Repub. League a majority. Then what will he do a year hence? Kentucky, should it go Democratic, cannot save him.

If Ryan was not a candidate for office he would never have come into Kentucky to speak for Goebl, not even if he had degenerated from a would-be statesman to a professional politician. He is only hoping to "get away" for himself in 1890.

The Goeblites, who abuse the Brownies and call them boasters, are boasting themselves everywhere trying to prosecute the colored voters. They abuse all who have their party yet are endeavoring to win boasters from Republican ranks. The Goeblites are nothing but a body of demagogues.

It is a safe bet that Goebl wishes Ryan had remained in Nebraska or elsewhere and not paid his promised visit to Kentucky. The Goeblites position was only strengthened by the Nebraskans, who has driven from Goebl some gold bugs who had felt inclined to remain with the old party for old time's sake.

BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR

It will overcome and cure every form of irregular menses, leucorrhoea, speaking, will run south east through Manchuria to Pekin. It is apparently Russia's intention to complete the road to Pekin before a strong protest can be made against such move, thereby making Russia the dominant power in China's capital.

It is a safe bet that Goebl wishes Ryan had remained in Nebraska or elsewhere and not paid his promised visit to Kentucky.
